Dear [REDACTED]:

We are responding to correspondence, submitted on your behalf by [REDACTED], requesting relief in order to establish 1995 as the effective taxable year for your S corporation election. Although we are unable to respond to your request as submitted, this letter provides information relating to your request.

Announcement 97-4 (copy enclosed) provides guidance on seeking relief for late S corporation elections. Generally, to request relief for a late S corporation election you must request a private letter ruling (PLR) from the National Office. The information sent to our office is insufficient for us to process a PLR. The procedures for requesting a PLR are set out in Revenue Procedure 2002-1 (copy enclosed). In addition, Rev. Proc. 2002-1 requires taxpayers to submit a user fee along with their ruling request. The standard user fee for a PLR is $6,000. However, taxpayers with gross income of less than $1 million on their tax return for the last 12-month taxable year, qualify for a reduced user fee in the amount of $500. If you qualify for the reduced fee, you must include a statement certifying your gross income for the 2001 taxable year.

If you decide to submit a formal request for a PLR, please review Appendix B of Rev. Proc. 2002-1, and include all required procedural statements. Also include the user fee check and documents that substantiate your intent to be an S corporation from inception. Please refer your request to our office by adding the following to the address:

Attn: CC:PA:T
P.O. Box 7604
Ben Franklin Station
Washington, DC 20044

Direct to: CC:PSI:1
Room 5002

In addition, the IRS has developed two new CD-ROMs to help educate small business owners on their tax responsibilities: (1) Introduction to Federal Taxes for Small Business/Self-Employed; and (2) A Virtual Small Business Workshop. These two CD-ROMs are free and can be ordered by calling 1-800-829-3676. The IRS also provides a special website, www.irs.gov/smallbiz which is dedicated to providing information to small business taxpayers.

Please keep this letter with your tax records and feel free to provide a copy of it to your authorized representative. We hope that the above information proves helpful.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Dianna K. Miosi
